4. Discussion Items:

a. Review current zoning code

The question was raised and much discussion went back and forth regarding tracking of changes that have already been made to the Village codes in the way of ordinances and amendments and what still remains the same of the original codes adopted from Kane County.

- Commissioner Quail and Administrator Searl said that there has not been a good way of tracking the changes in the past.
  - President Tyrrell said the intent of this process is for the committee to take what they have been given, get familiar with it as it stands today, make suggested updates/amendments and if additional information is needed that isn't reflected in the packet request it from the Village office.
  - President Tyrrell and Administrator Searl discussed what they envision the process flow regarding getting the new documents introduced to the public.
1. The new codes will be published online for 30-60 days for the public to review.
  2. A Public Hearing will be held with the consultant giving a global overview of the codes in a power point presentation.
  3. A 2nd. meeting will be held will several tables set up and each member of the Planning/Zoning committee will take a certain chapter of the code, be familiar with it to answer any questions that may come up from the public.
  4. A 3rd. meeting (if needed) will be set up for public comments. Public comments may be addressed at the 2nd. meeting if time allows.

5. Other Business that normally would come before the Plan Commission for discussion

- Commissioner Quail identified and discussed the importance of education and training regarding;
  1. Residents when they are applying for a variance, for example, understanding the how the process works, understanding the questions on the application. The staff working with the residents to make sure they fully understand the scope of what they are requesting as the application fees are expensive and non-refundable. Commissioner Quail gave her full commitment to making sure the residents have a clear understanding of the process and what it entails.
  2. Making sure the Planning Commission board has the resources they need and understands the standards and statutes.
  3. The Village Board (based off the different outcome of the last vote) Commissioner Quail expressed the right each board member has to vote on how they interpret the code and that both boards have an understanding of one another's roles.

- Commissioner Quail suggested training for the members of the Plan Commission and Village Board, since there are new members to both bodies, and because training had been done several years ago by both the Village Attorney and by the American Planning Association.
