Published: Wednesday, Jan. 20, 2016 3:29 p.m. CST

CAMPTON HILLS – Campton Hills leads the state in safety, according to an analysis published this week by HomeSnacks.

According to its website, HomeSnacks – which uses data and analytics to determine the quality of life for places nationwide – based its rankings on the FBI's 2014 Uniform Crime Report for 202 communities with populations of at least 5,000.

Three criteria were considered: violent crimes – murders, assaults, rapes, armed robberies – per capita; property crimes – thefts, burglaries, motor vehicle thefts – per capita; and total crimes per capita, according to the report.

The analysis showed that those in Campton Hills have a 1 in 115 chance of being the victim of a crime.

The Tri-Cities and other neighboring communities also made the list. Geneva ranked 16th; South Elgin placed 64th; St. Charles notched 81st; North Aurora fell at 91st; Batavia scored 98th; Aurora got 120th; and Elgin was 126th, according to the report.

Mount Vernon ranked as the most dangerous place, the study found, noting residents there had a 1 in 16 chance of being the victim of a crime.

HomeSnacks noted that the study just looked at where crimes occurred most, based on a city's population.

"This report is not an analysis of the effectiveness of local police departments, nor does it reflect the fact that people from out of town may come into a community and cause a crime," the report states.
